

Call for Proposals

Tailor-made Technical Assistance for ACP Development Finance Institutions

Open until September 9th, 2022

The ICR Facility has launched a Call for Proposals to select our partner banks for the 2022–2025 period. Banks will be asked to submit a set of proposed activities, the majority of which should be activities to empower women's economic participation or be related to investment approaches that consider gender aspects.

Examples of support that can be provided include:

- Governance and reporting, especially designing gender-responsive M&E systems
- Conducting institutional assessments, especially related to gender
- Development of gender policies, gender strategies and/ or gender action plans
- Market research, for example on the needs of women entrepreneurs
- Support in building a business case and developing advisory services, esp. for women entrepreneurs
- Refinement of financial products, esp. products that cater to the needs of female clients

Six banks to receive support from 2022 –
2025

Application period
June – September
2022

Details and submissions on our website

Contact us at info@icr-facility.eu if you would like to discuss your idea with us or have questions on the application process.